

Hawassa University
College of Law and Governance
Department of civics and ethical education

Maximum load 25%

General Direction

Here below, there are lists of 5 questions and you should attempt all these questions. You are expected to write a brief explanation ranging from 8-10 pages with readable hand writing and your answer should be to the point. Finally, you are expected to present your work in the class room. The last date of submission will be on DECEMBER 15 2021.

- ✓ Any form of plagiarism and copying from other groups and/or sections will automatically disqualify your work.
 - ✓ Include only the Names and ID Numbers of group members who participated in doing the assignment.
 - ✓ Each group members are expected to exert their own effort on the assignment preparation and ready for presentation.
1. Discuss about moral judgment and four issues to considered in judging conduct or action (motive, means, consequence and situations)
 2. Why should human being be moral? explain briefly.
 3. Who is morally responsible? (i.e what is the ultimate foundation of moral principles? Supernatural God? Human reason? Mutual social contract or social customs?
 4. What Makes an Action Moral, immoral or right, wrong or good, bad and evil in our action and decision?
 5. Explain briefly about the moral foundations we base our ethical standards?

MORAL COURSE INSTRUCTORS